The information obtained for this purpose (including your IP address and other information collected by automated means) will be disclosed to or collected directly by these third-party service providers, and other relevant third parties who use the information to evaluate use of the Sites. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable law, we may also use information collected for analytics purposes for marketing purposes such as providing you with advertising that is more relevant to your interests or tracking the effectiveness of our marketing efforts. We at AQR Capital Management, LLC, along with our affiliates (collectively, “AQR”), respect your concerns about privacy. This Cookie Notice applies to the AQR websites listed here (collectively, the “Sites”).

Our Sites use cookies, web beacons and similar technologies (collectively, “cookies”) to function effectively. A “cookie” is a text file that websites send to a visitor’s computer or other Internet-connected device to uniquely identify the visitor’s browser or to store information or settings in the browser. A “web beacon,” also known as an Internet tag, pixel tag or clear GIF, links web pages or applications to web servers and may be used to transmit information back to a web server.

This Cookie Notice provides you with information about the cookies used on our Sites, their purpose and the choices you can make with regard to the use of cookies.

Cookies used on our Sites

- Essential cookies

Some cookies are essential for our Sites to function effectively and to offer our products and services. Essential cookies help us understand information, such as your session ID and other server authentication information. Essential cookies are required to enable basic website functionality; you cannot disable essential cookies.

- Targeted Advertising cookies

These cookies allow our Sites to deliver advertising that is more relevant to you and your interests. They may also be used to limit the number of times you see an advertisement and measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns. They may be set by us or by third-party providers whose services we have added to our website.

- Personalisation cookies

These cookies allow our Sites to remember the choices you make, such as your username, language or the region you are in, and provide enhanced, more personalised features.

- Analytics cookies

Our Sites may use third-party analytics cookies, for example, to help create reports and statistics on the performance of our Websites, how visitors interact with the Site and whether there may be technical issues. Analytics cookies help us understand information such as device ID, IP address, browser type, operating system, referring URLs, time and date of activity, actions taken on our Websites (including site searches), language preferences, city and country information and demographic data.

A list of the cookies we use across our Sites can be found by navigating to the “Cookie Settings” link (in the “My AQR” section in the bottom toolbar of our Sites) and then following links to the “View Cookies” links under the relevant categories.
